

Digital Voice

for communities

Digital Voice is immensely grateful to our generous funders and supporters who share our mission to provide media opportunities to disadvantaged groups and communities.

Information on our clients is included on our homepage summary, and testimonials in brief are on project pages. Fuller information on both is available on request.

Grants

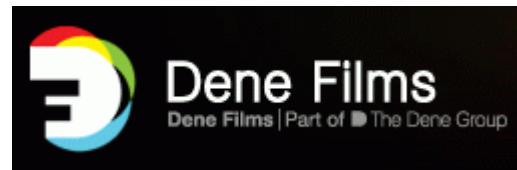

Roy and Pixie Baker Charitable Trust

The WA Handley Charity Trust and Gateshead Council North East Development Council

Supporters

Dene Films for Where does the Angel go...? and Emissions Impossible

Mere Mortals for Save the World

RTS North East and the Border Centre

Gateshead Council Economic Development
Department - especially Michelle Scott
Gateshead Council Libraries and Arts

Tyne and Wear Fire Prevention Service

Prudhoe Community High School

Accounts – many thanks to John Coffey FCMA, FFA of JAG Management, Keith Thomson and the late Roger Peat

Legal services - Joanne Davison, Robert Muckle Solicitors